

The latest deal completed by Gateley

Gateley is pleased to announce the completion of the following deal:

MBO of JB Kind Limited

Gateley acted for management on the MBO of JB Kind Limited led by managing director, James Cadman for an undisclosed sum.

JB Kind has a long and illustrious history, having been founded in 1870, it is a leading distributor of doors based in Swadlincote, South Derbyshire. The business now focusses on the distribution of innovative and bespoke products to builders merchants, DIY retailers and housebuilders.

The deal was led by Corporate partner, Simon Gill, assisted by senior associate Andrew Cowan, solicitor, Sarah Carlton, senior associate in Banking & Finance, James Dyson and Tax associate, Victoria Metcalfe.

Commenting on the deal, Simon Gill said: "We were delighted to work with James again and to support him and his team throughout the transaction. The business is strongly placed to benefit from the recent growth in the UK economy and we look forward to supporting them in the future."

Springboard Corporate Finance advised management with funding from Lloyds Bank.
