

The latest deal completed by Gateley

Gateley is pleased to announce the completion of the following deal:

Sale of Four D Rubber Company Limited

Gateley acted for the sellers on the sale of Four D Rubber Company Limited, a Midlands-based manufacturer of rubber latex sheeting, to a management team led by experienced entrepreneur and rubber industry expert, Richard Gogerty. The deal was supported by funding from Santander's Breakthrough Programme and Finance Birmingham.

Four D was formed in 1964 and has a proprietary process for the continuous casting of high specification latex sheeting. This has many applications but in recent years, the business has become a leader in its chosen markets of health, dental and medical, fashion and industrial. There is further exciting potential in these sectors going forward.

The deal was led by Corporate partner Simon Gill and Corporate senior associate, Andrew Cowan with support from Banking & Finance partner, Andrew Madden.

Funding totalling £3,600,000 was provided by Santander and Finance Birmingham.
