

The latest deal completed by Gateley

We are pleased to announce the completion of the following deal:

Sale of NEC in Birmingham to LDC in £307 million deal

Gateley acted for management on the sale of the National Exhibition Centre (NEC) to LDC in a deal that values the venue operator at £307 million.

The NEC, which opened in 1976, attracts four million visitors a year to its concerts, conferences and the Crufts dog show.

The deal was led by Paul Hayward, Corporate partner, and assisted by Paul Simpson, Corporate senior associate.

Catalyst Corporate Finance also advised the management on the sale.
