Multi-million pound deal to feed restaurant expansion

Gateley Plc advised NorthEdge Capital on its multi-million pound investment in East Coast Concepts, the company behind the Neighbourhood and Victor's restaurant brands, to facilitate the roll out of those brands across the UK.

East Coast Concepts plans to use the development capital injection from Manchester-based private equity house NorthEdge Capital to pursue its ambitious national growth strategy.

The deal was led by Corporate partner Paul Jefferson, who led a team from Gateley's Manchester office, which included Corporate solicitor Hannah Fletcher, Banking partner Rick Sealy and Real Estate senior associate Simon Maddox.

Commenting on the deal Paul Jefferson said: "NorthEdge is a valued client for our Private Equity team and we are delighted to have advised them on this investment. We wish James and his management team every success in delivering their roll-out and expansion plans."
